Clubs Name Candidates For Queen of Valley's Homecoming Festivities

Representatives From WAA, AWS Attend Conference

Representatives from Valley College attended an AWS, WAA Conference at Compton College last Saturday, November 4, 1950.

Delegates from Valley included Katherine Moore, AWS president; Shirley Wertz, AWS secretary; Michele Arons and Elinor Penry, AWS Council members; Lenita Wood, recorder; Diane Everts, WAA president; and Evelyn Hansen, WAA vice president.

Faculty advisers were Miss Jeanne Pons, physical education instructor, and Mrs. Nena Royer, dean of activities.

Colleges represented were Antelope Valley, Central, Chaffey, Citrus, Compton, ELAJC, El Camino, Fullerton, Glendale, John Muir, Long Beach, LACC, Harbor, Valley, Mt. San Antonio, Orange Coast, Pasadena, Riverside, San Bernardino, Santa Ana, Santa Maria, Santa Monica and Ventura.

A general assembly was held before adjourning into workshops, with the administration of Compton College welcoming all the delegates.

The girls were entertained with lunch, a fashion show and a water ballet performed in the school's swimming pool.

Prismon Says 'Vote'

Donald Prismon, sponsor of the Sigma Tau Sigma, requests the organization's members to contact either Ray Carter, Dick Adams or Dellaine Hazen. In this

Sheets Needed

"We need sheets," states Miss Frances Cochanides, faculty head of the Homecoming Dance. "We need them no matter what condition they are in."

Miss Cochanides explained that figures, or dummies, are to be made for part of the decorations of the Homecoming Dance.

The sheets may be left on Miss Cochanides' desk in faculty R. 4 or in R. 12.

Candidates for the Homecoming Queen are now being selected by on-campus clubs for the contest which is to be judged Tuesday, Nov. 14. Homecoming Day is Nov. 18.

Candidates selected so far are: Joan Townsend, Sigma Tau Sigma; Dodie Joyce, Gamma Delta Upsilon; Joan Williams, Engineering Club; Rillis Hanna, Spanish Club; June Kroutil, French Club; Shirley Holt, Alpha Pi Epsilon; Rae Vackar, Ski Club; Mardell Hasselblad, Knights; Dona Raddatz, Coronets; Barbara Price, Sharps and Flats; Shirley Shilts, "Y" Club; Joan Brask, Alpha Tau Epsilon; Irene Hansen, Psychology Club; Dolores Duffey, Newman Club.

The candidates for Queen will be selected by outside judges, including prominent businessmen in the Valley. Judging will take place at 11 a.m. in College Hall. The candidates will make their first appearance in sweaters and skirts, and their second appearance in date dresses and heels.

Coronation ceremonies will take place during half-time at the Valley vs. Harbor game Saturday. After the coronation, the Queen will present a trophy to the sponsors of the winning float.

The Queen and her four princesses will be announced Thursday, November 16, at an assembly and rally in College Hall from 11 a.m. to 12 noon. The Queen will also be interviewed Thursday on a fifteen minute program, beginning at 2:45 p.m. over KGIL, further publicizing the parade and game.

Journalism Frat Chooses Leaders

Gamma Delta Upsilon, men's honorary journalism fraternity, elected officers at their last meeting. Those elected were president, Bill Tunnell; vice-president, Brad Browne; secretary-treasurer, Dick Degnon; and pledge-master, Dick McGowan.

The fraternity plans to hold a dinner next week at the home of their sponsor, Angelo Villa. Other plans are being made for the remainder of the semester.

way, members will be able to receive their voting ballots which will allow them to vote. Voting may be done anytime before Tuesday, Nov. 14.

BULLETIN

Plans are being made to start a boxing club here at Valley College. The first meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, November 14, in R. 10, stated Bob Lunsford, who is one of the organizers. The other student helping start the club is John Garcia.

All students interested in joining the club may see either Garcia or Lunsford for particulars. The program of the organization will include boxing, rope work, basic fundamentals and various types of bag work.

Everyone is invited to come to the meeting whether he wishes to join or not, said Lunsford. No experience is needed to enter the club.

First Homecoming Dance Date Set

Valley College's Homecoming Queen, whoever she may be, will reign supreme over the newest of Valley's "traditions-to-be," the First Annual Homecoming Dance. College Hall will be the scene of the festivities on Saturday night, November 18. The dance will last from 9 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. The admission price will be $1.00 for stags and $1.75 for couples. All stags and at least one person of each couple must possess an Associated Students Membership Card.

"Football" will be the theme of the dance; it will be carried out in an unusual manner by the Decorations Committee.

Couples' tickets will be available from members of the Dance Committee. Stag tickets will be available at the door.

Miss Frances Cochanides and Katherine Moore head the dance committee.

Miss Moore states, "Any one who can offer to help with decorations for the Homecoming Dance should see either me or Miss Cochanides."

Creative Writing Club Sponsored By Korn

Noel Korn, English instructor, has agreed to sponsor a creative writing club if enough students are interested in such a club. Joan Townsend, a Valley student, is working to organize the club. She asks that all persons interested in forming such a club see her. If prospective members cannot find her, they may leave their names in R. 12, and Miss Townsend will contact them.

Valley's Homecoming Promises Excitement, Frolic, In Gala Week

By DODIE JOYCE

A bowlful of midterms, a dash of festive floats and colorful "doings," a Monarch beauty as Homecoming Queen, blend with an exciting football game and dance—mix well—AND you have a busy month of November for Valleyites!

Homecoming plans at Valley are in full swing, as clubs are busy with floats and queen entries for the contest. There's an air of excitement on campus which foretells the anticipated gaiety of Homecoming, Nov. 18.

Pep Club Rally For Homecoming Next Thursday

Valley College's Pep Club will hold a Homecoming rally in College Hall at 11 a.m. next Thursday, November 16.

One of the highlights of the assembly will be the announcement of the Homecoming Queen and her court. The Queen will not be crowned at the assembly, but at the game on Saturday.

During the rally, the college band will play several songs, among them the College's Alma Mater. They will also accompany the song leaders.

Coach Charles Mann will introduce the football team individually. Art Rocha, Valley's new cheer leader, will act as emcee and, with his three assistants, lead the student body in school yells.

Everyone is requested by Dick Yamashita, IOC president who is sponsoring the assembly, to leave College Hall in good order. The Knights will set up the seats and put them away and otherwise clean up the Hall.

VC Song Leaders' Committee Makes Uniform Selection

Valley College song leaders' uniforms have been tentatively selected and their debut is planned for the Homecoming Game, Nov. 18.

Diana Serzow, Dorris Schaeffer, Michele Arons, Phyllis Barskey and Sally Crasswaller, song leaders, have chosen a green and gold motif.

The costume will consist of a gold corduroy or gabardine one piece short skirt lined in green with matching green tights; a gold cap sleeve blouse with green letters, VC, in the left hand corner; and green pompons.

Mrs. Nena Royer, dean; Miss Jeanne Pons, physical education instructor; and Miss Frances Cochanides, speech instructor are the faculty advisory committee.

Coronets Choose Ohms, President

Nancy Ohms was elected president of Valley College Coronets, women's service club, at the last meeting, Nov. 2.

Other officers include, Nadine Wells, vice-president; Kathryn Bettis, secretary; Pat Coombs, treasurer; Delta Miller, sergeant-at-arms; and Charleen Backus, historian.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Velma Olson, secretarial science instructor at Valley, the Coronets have a full schedule of activities. Some of these will be serving tea on Journalism Day, Dec. 8; organizing a High School reception committee; and recently they assisted with the Chest X-Rays.

"One of our first big problems will be designing and ordering of our sweaters," said Miss Ohms.

Who will win the game? Who will be queen? These are the bell-ringing questions on campus which have us all wondering.

Floats for the gala Homecoming are already in the making. The French Club has obtained the needed $25 from a merchant, and has been donated the flat bed for the float. The art department has offered to advise clubs entering floats on color schemes and decorations. Each float entry must have been donated $25 from some source, and have a sponsor.

Other clubs working on floats are the Student-Y, Spanish group, Coronets, Psychology Club, Lettermen's Club, Knights, Newman Club, Alpha Tau Epsilon, Engineer's Club and Alpha Pi Epsilon.

The floats will parade through Van Nuys, Studio City and North Hollywood from 7-9 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 17.

Don't forget the recipe—floats, queen, football game and dance! Nov. 18 is a day to remember.

Campaign Begins; 100% Contribution, Aim Of Dr. Kersey

The Community Chest campaign in the Los Angeles City schools will begin Monday, November 13, and continue until Friday, November 17.

Contributions at Valley College will be collected by the instructors in each class.

Director Vierling Kersey, in his bulletin on the Chest drive, stressed 100 per cent contribution. The emphasis, he said, is on participation more than on the amount given.

There is an urgent need for more contributions and subscriptions this year than last, since the demands of the Chest agencies continue to increase.

"You do so much for so many" is the slogan for the Red Feather organizations.

Society To Show 'Italian Strawhat'

Another old time film will be shown tonight in College Hall on the Valley College Campus. The movie is "Italian Strawhat," a French comedy written by the famous nineteenth century playwright La Biche. The film is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Tickets which will also entitle the holder to see the remaining two films in the current series, may be purchased tonight at College Hall for seventy-five cents. Tonight's film which was directed by the noted Rene Clair is reputed to be one of the finest French comedies of its era.

Little Foxes Postponed

Presentation of "The Little Foxes," the three act play now in rehearsal by the Crown Players, has been postponed until January. The play was originally scheduled for Dec. 1-9. The dates now are Jan. 6-13. The play will be given in R. 13, now called The Little Theatre.

Is It Fair? Is It Right?

What is the matter with the students here at Valley College when they find some poor, feeble excuse not to support their football team?

Why is it that the clubs, on campus and off, schedule parties or some other social activities on the night of the game? Why is it that students find something else to do when a game is to be played?

The sole argument having any merit at all stems from everyone's complete agreement that the games are played at too great a distance. It is true that the distances are long, but they are hardly phenomenal.

To give an example of true student support and long distant rooters, the Stanford Indians traveled to Los Angeles the other week to cheer their team. They were on hand and the team knew it. True, Valley is a smaller college but the students have only half the distance to travel for games. After all, it's the spirit and the sportsmanship that count.

There are, actually, no excuses for not going to the game, no matter how far. Most of these organizations that are enjoying themselves at some social gathering when our team is off somewhere playing to win, give some lame excuse, such as, "We had the party planned before we knew when the game was to be played." Well, they are startled when they learn that the football schedule was published at the beginning of the semester—long before any club was really organized.

How about getting out and supporting the team? Don't lose interest so soon. The football squad has won its first game in the history of the school. They proved they were in right in there with them.—Marjorie Elliott

Growing Pains

Monarchs To Know

By LEO OFALI

Among all the instructors at Valley College, it can easily be said that William A. Hawkinson is the most traveled. In fact, it is his desire to travel from Cairo to Capetown because, as he says, "I want to see Africa."

Mr. Hawkinson received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Pomona College, his General Secondary Credential at Claremont

College and his Master's at USC. Then he taught in Beaumont, Calif., Colton, Riverside and just before coming to Valley, at Compton College.

He has been in every state in the Union, traveled to Mexico, seen every Central American country except Panama and British Honduras and has gone to England.

Mr. Hawkinson drove up the Alcan Highway to Alaska, traveled in seven of the Canadian provinces and was the only man to get a car through Managua, Nicaragua, during the rainy season. However, he didn't get it back.

Joseph Puig

A native of Mexico but raised in Los Angeles, Joseph Puig began his first semester of instruction at Valley College this year.

Mr. Puig, pronounced wig with a P in front of it, attended UCLA before the war, and after some time in the service, was graduated from the university with his Bachelor of Arts and Master's degree in Spanish and Italian.

He spent some time in liaison work between the Air Force and the Spanish and Portugal governments in 1944 to '45, and then went to France and Italy in related activities.

Mr. Puig is married and at the present lives in West Los Angeles.

New Library In Old Social Hall; Ready For Use

Valley College's new library is now open for use with many new improvements ready for the students, states Miss June Adams, librarian. The library is located in R. 15, last semester's Social Hall, and is open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The library is equipped with new furniture which includes a charging desk, a newspaper rack and a magazine rack. A large number of late newspapers and magazines will be on hand at all times, and there is enough shelf space for 2,022 books.

Materials now available include a large set of fiction books, complete card catalog, dictionaries and encyclopedias, reference books, and many magazines and newspapers. There is a well-lighted reading room with tables enough to seat about 50 students.

Headed by June Adams, librarian, the staff consists of Doris Crawford, library clerk, and student assistants Pat McCloskey and Helen Davis.

NOTICE

After the close of business at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 15, all accounts pertaining to procurement of books, equipment and supplies issued to veterans, will be closed for the current semester. There can be no exception to the procedure as stated above.—Frank R. Hovey, Business Manager.

The Valley Forge

By Bill Tunnell

If I walked up to you today and said, "Who is your class-president," you would probably come back with an, "I don't know." And you would be right. They haven't been elected yet, and so far no date has been set for elections. We're in the eighth week of school now; by this time something should have been done. What can you do, you say. Well, you can organize a committee and move en masse to an IOC meeting and demand something be done.

SORRY!!

TO BAKERSFIELD: Sorry, Jim, but some of our more excitable students got carried away with the spirit of the occasion. The bell, I'm sure, has been returned to you; and I hope it was in the same condition as when it left. I further hope that this doesn't destroy the friendly relations between Bakersfield and Valley.

YAT-TA-TA-YAT

Are you a "Talking Teddie?" A "Talking Teddie" is one who sits as close as possible to a classroom and chips his teeth to the fullest extent of his lung-power. I have heard from some of our noteworthy peers that it can be very distressing to be interrupted in the middle of a lecture to have to listen to the latest gossip wafted in the window by our loudlunged friends. If this situation isn't remedied almost at once, I have heard that extreme measures will be taken, such as cutting out tongues, puncturing lungs or some such thing.

Great Stuff

Yours truly wishes to bestow the weekly FORCE FAVOR to William McNelis, who has done an outstanding job in getting Homecoming started, keeping guys out of the Army plus carrying on his usual duties. Better slow down, Mr. McNelis, before we carry you home on a stretcher.

SMCC Presents Jazz Jubilee

An added attraction to the growing list of inter-collegiate social activities will be the first annual Junior Jazz Jubilee to be presented at Santa Monica City College on Nov. 3.

By starting the Junior Jazz Jubilee, SMCC hopes to start a tradition which will be carried on by other junior colleges in the district competing for the "greatest Junior Jazz band in the land."

Featured on the program will be the musical talent of Bobby Dome's "Square Root of Thirty Six," "The Hot Four and No More" and "The French Three and Oui! Oui!"

In the Mood

By Bill Tunnell

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Dick McGowan is ill this week and was not able to write this column.)

There has been much discussion of late concerning what makes a record a hit. A hit supposedly is any record which sells over 250,000 copies.

My contention is not what makes a hit but who makes it a hit. And the answer is the disc-jockeys. The disc-jockeys continue to shove records down our throats whether we like them or not on the theory that if we hear it enough times we will like it and immediately rush down to the record store and grab a copy. And they're right a large part of the time. I still hold out hope for our more staunch music lovers, but with the general overall public it seems to work. Look at "Good-night Irene." It sold big, not because it was a particularly good record but because we heard it so much some of the public grew to like it. (My opinion is "Irene" wasn't written; it just happened.)

The disc-jockeys will vehemently deny this. They say they play only what the general public wants to hear, but will not deny that certain records, when released, are marked as plug tunes. This means: play it so often the public will either like it or want to break all existing copies.

Answer this question all of you who purchased a copy of "Irene." How many times will you ever play the record again? Probably once about ten years from now, just to hear what it sounds like, and then you'll give it to your worst enemy.

Also, how many records that you really like do you hear within an hour's time on any disc-

Homecoming Game May Be Ruined By Scrappy Harbor Jaysee Eleven

By Dick Degnon

Harbor Junior College will arrive at Valley College next Saturday afternoon with high hopes of spoiling Valley College's Homecoming game with the Seahawks.

Chances are pretty good that this feat will be accomplished in the hard luck. Harborites have the best defensive squad in the Metro circuit and manage to score themselves occasionally.

Things Are Different

Coach Joe Berry of Harbor knew at the outset of the season that he was in dire need of an offensive team but just didn't have "the horses" and resorted to molding his aggregation into a defensive unit. But now things are different in the Wilmington area, for the Seahawks have exploded in the past few weeks and have given their opposition quite a scare.

Downed SMCC

They were idle in League play last week, but on the previous Saturday they blasted Santa Monica C.C. 27-7, while the Monarchs dropped a 38-18 verdict to the Corsairs in October.

Hard Luck Team

With a stroke of luck the Harbor team could be pacing the loop. They were nudged by East Los Angeles 14-7 after having a teedee called back on a backfield in motion penalty. They were dropped by El Camino in the last 30 seconds 12-7 after sporting a lead throughout. Against Bakersfield they had a back in the clear in the waning seconds of play in the scoreless tie, only to have him trip and fall on the 12 yard line of Bakersfield as the gun sounded ending the scoreless fray.

Miller, Their Best

They are paced by "Dancin'" Don Miller, a good shifty runner, who is always dangerous, and a staunch forward wall that has held their League opposition to a measly 32 points.

It is rumored that the Harbor's players will carry rabbit's feet, four leaf clovers and horse shoes when they arrive for the Valley Homecoming struggle next week.

Basketball Team To Make Debut In New Uniforms

Satin green jackets and matching pants and tops in the same forest green shade will be worn by Valley College basketball players it was announced by Coach Ben McFarland this week.

The newly arrived attire made a big hit with both players and coach. According to Metro rules, a light color is to be worn at all home games, and a dark shade will be displayed in all road contests. Valley will don gold tops at all home tiffs.

Valley will meet Antelope Valley Jaysee on January 2 at Van Nuys High. This was the latest tilt added to the Monarchs' schedule. On February 20 of next year Valley will trek to Antelope Valley for a return engagement.

The Green and Gold hoopsters will open the 1950-51 season against Pierce Jaysee at Van Nuys High. The league will open on January 5 when the Monarchs tackle defending champion East LA on the Monarch hardwoods. McFarland's cagers close out the campaign against San Diego Jaysee at home on February 24.

The Monarchs now have 24 games slated, and McFarland may add a few more before the end of the season.

He has yet to make a major cut on his squad, and now with the addition of a jayvee squad, slashing plans are practically null and void.

Coach Charles Mann was named last week to mentor the Jayvee aggregation.

Metro Standings

East LA	2	0	0
San Diego	2	1	0
Harbor	1	2	1
Bakersfield	0	2	1

Long Beach and Valley don't play a full schedule; therefore their games do not count in this year's standings.

Murphy Still in Lead

A battle royal from here on in is in store for the STAR for those predictors of the weekly grid contests as could be seen from the closeness of things last week.

All crystal ball gazers had a bad week. Roger Murphy continued to show his wares with a 14-6 posting. Dick Degnon and Brad Browne had a 13 and 6 to continue in a second place deadlock. The faculty and student body had a 11 and 9 in guessing and also remained knotted up for the show position.

This week is usually the week that the big teams take a breather before undertaking the big ones that will come up in the ensuing Saturdays. Eddie Freeman will attempt to bring the student body up in the standings and Wilford Jenks, the faculty.

Valley Monarchs Have Tough Time With Bakersfield Renegades, 39-7

By DICK FOX

Playing a beautiful game of defense in the first quarter, the Valley boys were unable to stop Bakersfield last Saturday night at Bakersfield as the Renegades rolled over the Monarchs, 39-7.

First Quarter Scoreless

The first quarter proved that the Monarchs had the stuff as they held the Renegades scoreless. The Valley line outcharged and out pushed Bakersfield but couldn't hold on.

The second quarter started Bakersfield on the go, and they couldn't be stopped. With terrific tackling and blocking in the remainder of the game, the Renegades had little trouble in scoring. Passing on the part of Valley was pretty bad. The passes were there and so were the receivers.

Summers Standout

Dave Summers proved to be Valley's best man on defense. Summers really played some great ball. He stopped two or three possible touchdown passes and gave the Bakersfield passers lots of trouble. He also set up the only Valley score by intercepting a Renegade pass and running 60 yards to the Bakersfield two, where Walt Ambord went over.

Kirkland Runs Wild

Al Kirkland and Don Johnson proved to be the power and speed for the Renegades as predicted. Another fast back of the Bakersfield team which gave Monarchs trouble was Marv Thompson.

The Bakersfield backs showed some of the best ball handling that Valley has been up against so far this season.

Halfback Al Kirkland was the big man of the night with three teedees for the winners.

Win First Metro Conference Meet

Paced by Jim Dickey and John Garcia, Valley College's cross country harriers eked out a close 27-28 victory over the defending champion ELAJC team last week on the loser's course.

The main credit for winning this meet must be given to Dickey who displayed an unselfish act of team spirit by holding back and pacing the other members of his team across the finish line.

Dickey, who copped second place, was followed closely behind by Garcia, who placed in third position. Dwight Mobley took sixth and Clive Rogers seventh, being trailed by Don Hoover, Ed Masry and Wes Morris, all of whom placed in the money for the Monarchs.

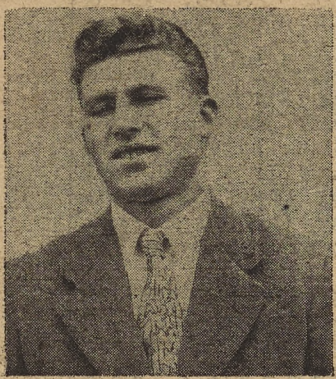

The winning time for the three mile course was 18 minutes and 10 seconds, this being a fair time considering the fact that the course was on a steep uphill grade.

'Apple Polishing' Theme Of Campus Y Dinner For Students, Faculty

With a theme of "Apple Polishing," which according to Wyatt Seal, president, has nothing to do with mid term, the campus Y of Valley College held its Second Annual Student Faculty Banquet.

The banquet was held Tuesday evening at the North Hollywood YM-YWCA at 5142 Tujunga Avenue.

Mary Lou Meyers gave a stirring invocation as students and faculty alike gathered around the long tables to partake of the food prepared by the Malulanis Club, North Hollywood's YWCA. Jack Heins, student of Valley, played a medley of three selections on the harmonica.

Rillis Hanna, student, led the hall in a community sing including such songs as "You Are My Sunshine," "Red River Valley," "Anchors Away," "The Marines Hymn" and "Valley's Fight Song."

Wyatt Seal acted as emcee of the occasion and introduced the speaker for the evening, Dr. Franklin Ham.

Dr. Ham, of the Bolander Clinic of Van Nuys, gave a satire of his adventures in Boston. He spoke of interviewing patients before they were admitted to the hospital and one imitation of an elderly Irish lady brought hilarious ovations from the group in attendance.

Mrs. Dorrit Snow, of San Fernando's YWCA; Miss E. L. Sudlow; and Mrs. Florence R. Wilson, co-chairman of the Committee Management of the North Hollywood YWCA, were among the guests attending the annual banquet.

Kermit Dale, instructor, is the faculty sponsor of the Campus Y. Also taking part in the entertainment was Leonidas Paolino, instructor.

Valley-Go-Round

By DODIE JOYCE

"And my choice is—!" Between floats and queen entries, there's hardly anything left to talk about at Valley this month. The way the Homecoming is progressing, it sounds out of this world.

Whoever heard of selling carrots on campus? Valley students have! The French Club is selling them for 3 cents each to get enough money for their float. These kids have what is known as good old enthusiasm. There's also a rumor around campus that the lucky queen will ride in a Cadillac convertible.

Flash! The Chess Club may enter a queen in the Homecoming parade, is the latest news from sponsor, Leonidas Paolino.

Bakersfield Game

Many Valleyites attended the Bakersfield-Valley football fray last week and are unanimous in their opinion of, "We had a wonderful time." A few of the many students there, stopped at Crystal Inn after the game and enjoyed the music of the "California Dons." The band played all the college fight songs, including the Valley Fight Song! In fact, they have promised to play it from now on along with their repertoire of other college pieces.

Singing the fight song at the top of their lungs were Jeanne Marcy, Dellaine Hazen, Mike Seeger (who presented the music of our song to the band), Bill Tunnell, Kay Baker, Dee Yrigoyen, Joan Brask, Dick Degnon, Dorothy Baldwin, Karl Von Poeder-

Place your bets! Knights To Play Faculty Nov. 28

The Knights are out for revenge for a certain basketball game they lost to the Faculty, and as Bill Wells, president of the Knights says, "Now is the time!" The Knights have challenged the Faculty to a touch football game on Nov 28 at 11 a.m. on the Van Nuys High field, and are in high hopes of winning.

Philip Clarke, Valley mathematics instructor, has accepted the Knights' challenge and is forming the Faculty team. The Knights won the baseball game they played with the Faculty, and are predicting a Knights' win in the football fray.

On the pessimistic side of the game, Mr. Clarke has predicted the Knights will win by four touchdowns! This was said with a twinkle in his eye.

Signed up to play with the Faculty team so far are Walter Coultas, William McNelis, James Slosson, Noel Korn, Edward Clark, Robert Nassi, John Penery, Harry Beck, Mr. Clarke and Coaches Charles Mann, Ben McFarland and E. Y. Johnson.

STAFF ATTENDS PRESS DAY

Representatives from the newspaper staff of Valley College will attend Valley Press Day at North Hollywood High School on Nov. 13. Valley students attending will be Dellaine Hazen, editor-in-chief of THE VALLEY STAR; Bill Tunnell, managing editor; and Mrs. Esther Davis, sponsor of the publication.

Speaker of the day will be Jackson Burger, editor of the Valley Times, who will discuss typography, make-up and news coverage.

A musical program and refreshments will conclude the event which offers advisers and editors of Valley school publications the opportunity of becoming acquainted with the San Fernando Valley Press Association.

Valley College will feature a similar program on Dec. 8 at their first Journalism Day. Guests to be invited will be newspaper representatives from the various Valley high schools.

Oyen, yours truly and Roy Van Ittersum.

Odds and Ends

Best wishes to Valley's John Kaye and Michael Ybarra who will leave tomorrow for Lowery Field in Texas . . . Received another "Washington communique" from Ray Cluff, last semester's managing editor of the STAR, which sent his "hellos" to his friend from Valley. . . Nancy Helser, social editor of the STAR, sends her best from Michigan where she is attending business school.

TELEVISION'S CYCLONE MALONE TO ENTERTAIN AT ASSEMBLY

Fashion Flicker

By SANDEE SLAKOFF Fashion Editor

Life can be fashion-full! And with such a heavenly choice range blooming with color and conversational "knick-knacks," dressing up is a pleasure. Did you know that a hugh, poofy taffeta bow gives perfect balance to a bare-shouldered dress . . . and a scalloped velvet or satin apron is the magic touch for a slim, simple skirt? Watch all those complimentary adjectives gush forth when you appear, shining and elegant, for the holiday whirl.

A MODEL LIFE

Shades of color . . . MILLICENT PARTEE, radio major, modeled a cloudy orange nylon formal at the Buyer's Show, held at the Bel-Air Hotel in Westwood. The dress, one in the group modeled by Millicent, had a carved tight-fitting basque of glowing satin. Millicent's own campus wardrobe is also quite novel—she adores her original tartan plaid jacket, which features three symmetrical pockets, and she praises its value as a mix-mate for separates.

MYRA ARMSTRONG, who has an air of jolly England about her, sports a one-shouldered, fringed stole with her bright wool skirts. Myra is a fashion enthusiast, and has just the accessories to color these wintry days.

PICK-UP TRICKS

Here's something different in the way of advertising your good fashion sense . . . try a black velvet embroidered tie to adorn a white sweater . . . create some fancy stitch-work or braiding for the floppy pockets of an extremely slim skirt . . . wear one of those "on the cuff" heavy gold bracelets for a touch of glinting

Cyclone Malone, the gun-totin' law enforcin' hero of the television lanes will visit Valley College Nov. 21 at 11 a.m. in College Hall.

Dorothy Novis and Ann Davis, co-producers, writers and directors of the show will bring their "Cyclone Malone Medicine Show" to headline the Thanksgiving Assembly.

Sharing the spotlight with Cyclone will be all his friends from Wishbone Hollow, including One Lone Feather, Cozy, Abner, Violet Lavender, Major Richmond and others.

The assembly, featuring the puppets, is sponsored by the AWS and is the second traditional Thanksgiving Assembly at Valley and will be open to all students on campus.

The puppet show, one of the most popular on video, can be seen five days a week at 6:45 on KNBH. Valley is honored with the appearance of the show as it is the first time they have put on the production for any school.

What's Up, Doc?!

"Carrots! Carrots!" is the cry heard ringing over the campus as French Club members are enthusiastically selling the "Bugs Bunny" food to earn money for their Homecoming float.

The group has to make $25 on the project to supplement the other $25 for their float donated by Wray Brothers in Van Nuys. The float itself has been donated by club member Lydia Bronson.

metallic color on a very dark sweater or blouse.

Everything glitters at this time of the year—so indulge your fancy, and scatter colored beads and sequins throughout your wardrobe. Shine on . . . light your own path to holiday good-will and cheer!

Art Department Handles Many Projects, Exhibits

Valley's art department is busy at work on many art projects for contests, exhibits, Homecoming and future assemblies. At present the department is showing many of the Valley art students' drawings at the Art Exhibit in the Van Nuys High School library through the month of November.

The entries are mainly the work of this semester and include abstracts, realistic paintings, landscapes, commercial advertising and life drawings. Valley students whose art is being shown are Hazel Allen, Joan Brask, Bob Knight, Bill Brannum, Lloyd Jones and Art Hernandez.

The department, under the direction of Miss Marie Scott, has entered three posters in the city-wide Community Chest Poster Contest. The contest is sponsored by the PTA and offers honor prizes to the winners to be announced later.

McLONEY HOLDS COSTUME PARTY

Many Valleyites attended a festive costume party last week at the home of Jackie McLoney.

Matrix Members To Be Installed In Beta Chapter

Members of Matrix Table, women's honorary journalism society at Valley, will be officially installed as members at the Hollywood Athletic Club tomorrow night.

Valley's charter members of the Beta chapter who will attend the affair are Dellaine Hazen, editor-in-chief of THE VALLEY STAR; Sandee Slakoff, fashion editor; Margie Elliott, feature editor; Dona Raddatz, member of the advertising staff; Dodie Joyce, social editor; and sponsor, Mrs. Esther R. Davis.

The formal affair will begin with a banquet and follow with an installation ceremony. Hostesses at the occasion will be the Alpha chapter of Matrix at LACC.

Valley's Matrix Table will form its own constitution, and women with the qualifications will be eligible for membership next semester.
